Who Are We?

We—the congregation of New Hope Church in Cooper, Texas—cannot be defined or explained with a single word. Our members are a group of believers in Christ who come from all backgrounds, ethnicities, locations, and experiences. Together, we make a diverse, devoted family of Christ who come together to share our God-given talents and spiritual gifts with each other and our community.

You will see us in the fields, factories, offices, restaurants, and stores in your area. We pray that you will recognize us as "Children of the Living God" through the way we conduct our lives.

We are accountants and bankers, farmers and factory workers, nurses and business owners, ranchers and writers, teachers and mechanics, carpenters and retirees. Our goal as Christians is a simple one; we look to mature our faith through growth in God's Word and extend His love throughout the world. We aim to honor His "great commission" of spreading God's message and winning souls to Christ through His grace and our faith.

We strive to lift up all who come to us, all who worship with us, and all who ask for prayer; for we know the power that prayer has to improve our lives, strengthen our faith, and bring us peace. Our "Prayer Warriors" stand ready to lift you and your family up in intercessory prayer, to support you and petition our Lord to embrace you in His grace, mercy, and love in your time of need.

While we may have many titles, the one most dear to us is "Christian." We are not perfect; we are not religious zealots; yet we are men and women who believe that our God is the one true Creator of the universe and that we should always endeavor to honor Him through our words, actions, and deeds.

If you had to characterize us in a single word, we pray that word would be LOVE.

We invite you to come and worship with us in faith, fellowship, and friendship.
